

ESCAIDE 2023 updates

Newsletter June 2023

Registrations are open

You can now register to attend ESCAIDE 2023! We're excited to offer the conference – both online and in-person. You can find the link to the online registration form on our website, along with important information about the registration process. Make sure you register before 15 September if you plan to join us in-person in Barcelona. Registrations for online participation will remain open until the conference days.

We hope you'll join us to experience an exciting three-day event full of discussions about all aspects of public health and infectious diseases. Our programme is packed with plenaries and side events, and opportunities to network with public health professionals from around Europe and the world.

Call for abstracts is now closed: review process will soon be completed

We're thrilled to announce that we received a record number of abstract submissions this year – thanks to all authors for sharing their work with us. We would also like to thank our dedicated pool of expert reviewers for going above and beyond to ensure that all these abstracts are reviewed. Their help is hugely appreciated, and their contribution to the ESCAIDE programme is crucial to the success of the conference.

Once the review process is over, the Scientific Committee will make a final decision on the abstracts selected, and authors will be notified of the decisions by 16 June. The Funding Initiative selection process will follow shortly afterwards, and successful candidates will be contacted directly.

How will ESCAIDE work as a hybrid event?

For the second year, we're excited to offer ESCAIDE as a hybrid event. You can either join us online, or in-person in the superb Palau de Congressos de Barcelona. All participants will have access to the online conference platform, Swapcard, where the plenary sessions, abstract presentations and poster tours will be live-streamed. The platform will allow online participants to be fully immersed in ESCAIDE, accessing the conference's content and interacting with speakers and other participants. For those of you who will join us in-person, check out our website for information regarding the venue and other practical information, including a list of hotels located nearby.
